Joseph Visalli, Clayton High School Principal, reported that NJSLA and ASVAB testing was held. The Penn Relays took place. JROTC Awards Night is scheduled for May 23rd. The High School will hold their annual spring concert on May 24th. People’s Choice Awards are scheduled for May 25th. The seniors will be honored at their awards ceremony on June 1st at Masso’s. The Prom is scheduled for June 2nd at the Collingswood Ballroom. Senior Picnic is scheduled for June 10th. Athletic Awards Night will take place on June 13th. The annual Role Model Breakfast will be held on June 16th along with the Senior Walk. High School graduation is scheduled for the evening of June 17th.

Marvin Tucker, Principal of Clayton Middle School, acknowledged the students and staff members who did a tremendous job creating a very entertaining Middle School play. Willy Wonka Jr. was performed last Saturday at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. A cost of 20 students and a crew of 12 worked flawlessly to put on a great performance! Special thanks were expressed to Brittany Vierling, Producer; Emily Lupo, Director; Aaron Shugarts, Set Designer; Samantha Connell, Music Director in addition to High School student helps and Parent Volunteers – Mrs. Pedrick, Mrs. Connell, and Ms. Pfeifer. There was a great turnout with 130 at the first show and 200 at the second show. The Middle School Spelling Bee was held on May 16th at 6 p.m. The spellers went through more than 15 rounds and over 120 words. It was a wonderful night! First place went to Ayden Fajardo; second place to Maya Morrison; and third place to Briseis Hanson. Upcoming events are as follows: Spring Spectacular on May 21st; Fun Plex Trip sponsored by the Student Connection Center on May 26th, Cape May Zoo trip for 6th and 7th grades on June 1st; Field Day at the JCC in Medford on June 6th; 8th Grade Academic Breakfast on June 7th; Dorney Park Trip on June 9th; 5th Grade Transition Program on June 10th; and the 8th Grade Promotion Ceremony on June 16th.

Scott Uribe, Simmons Elementary School Principal, reported that the Elementary School successfully completed NJSLA testing. He noted that the students really put forth great efforts, and testing went very smoothly. On the evening of May 6th the Elementary School held their first of two end-of-the-year dances. Everyone had a great time at the Mother/Son Dance with lots of fun and dancing. The Father/Daughter Dance is scheduled for June 10th. Mr. Uribe expressed his thanks to the Home and School Association for all their hard work on these events. The Scholastic Book Fair is underway this week. Students are ready to shine and sing at the upcoming spring concerts on May 25th.
