

Clayton School District takes reasonable steps to ensure limited English proficient households have access to the program. The link to the applications in different languages is located on the District website: <http://claytonps.org>. <http://www.fns.usda.gov/school-meals/translated-applications>.

When a student has a life threatening disability which has been medically documented by a doctor, Clayton School District makes the accommodations.

When a student has a food intolerance, Clayton School District makes accommodations when possible.

Clayton School District has not had any Written or Verbal complaints alleging discrimination.

The link to the Summer Food Service program is located at:

<https://www.fns.esda.gov/summerfoodrocks>